

CNA Board of Commissioners Candidates

Mexico City, October 8, 2025

President Sheinbaum unveils candidates for new CNA Board of Commissioners. CNA to be established the day following Senate confirmation.

Yesterday, President Claudia Sheinbaum announced her candidates for the Board of Commissioners of the new National Antitrust Commission ("CNA"). Upon confirmation by the Senate, which is expected to take place in the coming days, the Board of Commissioners will be appointed. The next day after appointment, the CNA will be considered formally established.

Once the CNA is officially in place: (i) the current Federal Economic Competition Commission ("COFECE") will cease to exist, (ii) the CNA's antitrust mandate will include telecommunications and broadcasting sectors, replacing Federal Telecommunications Institute ("IFT") as an antitrust authority, (iii) on-going investigations (suspended during transitional period) will resume, and (iv) the substantive changes to the Federal Competition Act will take full effect.

Below is a quick summary of each proposed candidate's background:
