

New essential activities are designated by Federal Government

Mexico City, August 5, 2020

On August 3, 2020, an official notice through which new activities are classified as essentials (the "Official Notice"), was published on the Federal Official Gazette ("DOF" for its acronym in Spanish), to guarantee a proper return to the school year 2020-2021, as determined by the Ministry of Education.

The Official Notice establishes as new essential activities, from August 4 to December 31, 2020, activities carried out by companies and businesses focused on satisfying the request of goods and services related to manufacture, sell and distribution of:

- Inputs and stationery items and educational material;
- Uniforms, backpacks and other school items;
- Electronic devices, such as tablets, computers and calculators, and
- Activities developed by editorials and libraries

These activities must comply with the Specific Technical Guidelines for the Reopening of Economic Activities published in the DOF on May 29, 2020.
