

In light of the crisis that represents the COVID-19 and in an effort to mitigate the risk of spreading and the effects of the virus, the Energy Regulatory Commission (“CRE”) determined that, starting on March 24 and until April 17, 2020, the running of all terms and deadlines associated with all actions and proceeding processed before CRE are suspended.

Any proceedings, applications or submissions filed before CRE during the suspension period will be considered as submitted on April 20, 2020.
